

HEADQUARTERS SIXTH CORPS AREA
OFFICE OF THE SIGNAL OFFICER
U. S. POST OFFICE BUILDING
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

June 29, 1942.

Mr. Emil Felber,
Wisconsin State Communications Manager,
American Radio Relay League,
1625 North 18th Street,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Dear Mr. Felber:

Through the courtesy of Mr. Warren H. Brown, Secretary of the Chicago Area Radio Club Council, this office has been informed that you are Section Communications Manager for your state for the American Radio Relay League. This office is endeavoring to locate commercially built amateur transmitting and receiving radio equipment located in this Corps Area with the purpose of negotiating for the purchase of such equipment for the use of the U. S. Army Signal Corps.

You will render the U. S. Army a distinct service in the war effort by furnishing this office any information available to you that may assist us in locating the above specified equipment in your territory.

Your assistance in this matter will be appreciated. An envelope, requiring no postage, addressed to this office is enclosed for your reply.

For the Acting Corps Area Signal Officer:

Thomas L. Williamson
THOMAS L. WILLIAMSON,
Major, Signal Corps,
Assistant Signal Officer.
